Willie Ritchie has left San Francisco on his way to Milwaukee to fight Charlie White. The champion will stop off at Glenwood Springs, Col., for a few days in the hills.

Al McCoy, conqueror of George Chip, knocked out George Pearsall in the first round at South Norwalk, Conn. The crowd hooted the mill and cries of "fake" were heard.

Danny Goodman won from Tommy Tague on a foul in the fifth round at Gary. Tague was repeatedly warned for foul tactics. Goodman had a lead from the start.

Tom McMahon won from Kid Kenneth in the 13th round at Los Angeles, the referee stopping the fight to save the coast man further battering.

President Weeghman has decided to make the price for 1,000 more seats at his North Side park 50 cents a sit. That number of perches have been separated from the 75-cent section and added to the pavilion. This is the proper spirited move, and shows that the North Side magnate is not working on the theory that the fans must take what they can get.

Three Games Tomorrow—Stars on North, West and South Sides.

Every ring of our triple-plated circus will be busy tomorrow and star attractions have been arranged by the masters of the several shows.

At the crack of Hughey Jennings' whip on the South Side the two famous jungle beasts, Ty Cobb and Sam Crawford, will trot out for the edification of the populace and give their exhibition of how to win ball games.

Out on the North Side the Federals are providing a few new stunts. Mordred Brown, the ex-Cub pitching staff, will be here at the head of his
